

FAIR EMPLOYMENT WEEK 2005

- CFA San Marcos Event -

In 2001, the Republican-controlled Florida legislature, under Gov. Jeb Bush, dissolved the state's board of regents, restructured the public university governance system, and discarded the union contract that applied to 11 institutions.

But the faculty fought back, filed an unfair labor practice, and won!

"...faculty who unite to improve their collective status and individual rights can prevail even against a state government that wishes them ill. I hope it will deter other governors from trying the same devious tricks."

-Roy Weatherford, Philosophy professor and president of the University of South Florida chapter of the United Faculty of Florida (Academe, May-June 2005)

CFA San Marcos invites you to hear Roy Weatherford speak. Weatherford has been a guest at Fox's O'Reilly Factor (12/19/01) and Pacifica Radio's Democracy Now! (4/6/05); worked under Charles Reed when Reed was Florida State University chancellor (1985-98); and is acquainted with CSUSM former interim president Roy McTarnaghan, founding president in 1993 of Florida Gulf Coast University, the FSU campus where professors do not have tenure but work, instead, - not unlike CSU long-term lecturers -, on renewable three-to-five-year contracts.
