

TEACHERS' WORKING CONDITIONS =
STUDENTS' LEARNING CONDITIONS

Contingent Faculty Rights Hearing

Tuesday November 1, 4 pm
Graduate Student Lounge
on College Ave Campus

BOARD OF NOTABLES: Celeste Barretto, President, Douglass College Government Association • The Reverend Gregory Bezilla, Chaplain St. Michael's Chapel and Canterbury House, The Episcopal Campus Ministry at Rutgers • David Bilon, Representative, University College Governing Association • Stephen Bronner, Distinguished Professor of Political Science • Assemblyman Upendra Chivukula, Vice-chair of Assembly Commerce and Economic Development Committee • Assemblyman Patrick Diegnan, Vice-chair of the Assembly Education Committee • Sheila Kelly Hampton, President of Associate Alumnae of Douglass College • Stephanie Ledgin-Toskos, Executive Council Livingston Alumni Association

Join Teaching Assistants, Part-Time Lecturers and Non Tenure Track faculty in providing testimony about the contributions contingent faculty make to the university and the obstacles often encountered by researchers, professors and students in the pursuit of quality education here at Rutgers.

For more information contact Rich Moser at
(732) 445-2278 x18

ALL ARE WELCOME TO TESTIFY

Campus Equity Week (CEW) is sponsored by the Rutgers Council of AAUP-AFT Chapters, the Part-time Chapter, the TA/GA Steering Committee, the Non-Tenure-Track Caucus, and the Graduate Student Association.