Learn from fellow faculty members about their working conditions and low wages.

Come and offer your own testimony before a wide-ranging panel of peers and experts. (RSVP: jjeneaul@syr.edu)

Help to get your voice heard, and real action to take place.

Make sure they know we do care, we are still in need of justice, and we will not be deterred.

This event provides a neutral space to discuss and listen and is part of Campus Equity Week/Fair Employment Week a North American biannual protest from Oct. 31-Nov. 4. Our event is co-sponsored by the AAUP and your university part-time senators.
